

8th INTERNATIONAL MEETING ON CONVERSATION ANALYSIS & CLINICAL ENCOUNTERS

08:00-09.00	Registration
09.15-09.30	OPENING Leonard Wolfson Auditorium Catherine Pope, Professor of Medical Sociology, University of Oxford – Welcome to Oxford Rebecca K. Barnes & the Organising Committee – Introducing CA&CE 2024!
09.30-10.30	KEYNOTE 1 Rose McCabe, Professor of Clinical Communication, City, University of London Communication in mental health assessments with people presenting to the Emergency Department in a mental health crisis Leonard Wolfson Auditorium
10.30-11.00	MORNING BREAK – Haldane Room
11.00-12.30	PARALLEL SESSION 1A – Leonard Wolfson Auditorium Mental health care	PARALLEL SESSION 1B – Buttery Remote & digital health care
11.00-11.15	1A.1 Rose McCabe et al. Communication in mental health care: A state-of-the-art review of conversation-analytic research	1B.1 Ayeshah Syed Opening teleconsultations during check-up visits for patients with Type 2 Diabetes guided by a teleconsultation checklist
11.15-11.30	1A.2 Catherine Woods Remote discussion of emotional concerns in telephone versus face-to-face primary care consultations (REMOTION): A pilot study	1B.2 Evi Dalmaijer et al. Advice-giving and authority in a digital paediatric rehabilitation treatment
11.30-11.45	1A.3 Iris van der Scheer The discussion of common mental health concerns in GP-patient interactions	1B.3 Sara Keel Solving a problem with an app in physiotherapy consultations as an opportunity for situated learning
11.45-12.00	1A.4 Clara Iversen et al. Accomplishing (anti)racism in the context of unconditional support: Examining responses to callers' racialised talk in suicide preventive helplines	1B.4 Fiona Stevenson Negotiations around the implementation of a digital health intervention (DHI) for management of long covid into secondary and community care
12.00-12.30	Adam Brandt & Spencer Hazel Automating clinical encounters – developing AI voice assistants for routine healthcare calls to patients Leonard Wolfson Auditorium

8th INTERNATIONAL MEETING ON CONVERSATION ANALYSIS & CLINICAL ENCOUNTERS

12.30-13.30	LUNCH – Haldane Room
13.30-15.00	DATA SESSIONS
	Leonard Wolfson Auditorium Maria Stubbe 'For young people like you': Negotiating age categories in primary care consultations	Buttery Anca-Cristina Sterie Introducing & managing end-of-life topics in discussions between spiritual counsellors & hospitalised older adults	Seminar Room 1 Valeria Barbieri Miscommunication in medical interaction: problems of understanding in doctor-patient consultation	Seminar Room 2 Heidi Kevoe-Feldman & Galina Bolden 'I don't wanna die': Managing caller panic in high-stakes emergency calls	Seminar Room 3 Virginia Calabria et al. Not being able to exercise: how GPs treat patients' accounts based on mental vs physical health co-morbidities with diabetes	The Levett Room Rebecca K. Barnes & Adaku Agwunobi Identifying problems for action in pharmacist-led structured medication reviews
15.00-15.30	AFTERNOON BREAK – Haldane Room
15.30-17.00	PARALLEL SESSION 2A – Leonard Wolfson Auditorium Managing practical problems in health care			PARALLEL SESSION 2B – Buttery Identity work
15.30-15.45	2A.1 Marit Nygård Halvorsen Midwives' approaches in thematizing violence in antenatal care			2B.1 Blair Ying Jin 'I am here again': Display of patient loyalty in routine chronic visits
15.45-16.00	2A.2 Bregje de Kok et al. Persuasion and shared decision-making in antenatal care in Ghana			2B.2 Ruiyu Tang 'You think I'm an augur?' Sequential consequences of invoking categories beyond Doctor-Patient collection in clinical interaction
16.00-16.15	2A.3 Eniola Boluwaduro 'What you'll help me do is x': Securing patients' adherence in Nigerian HIV consultations			2B.3 Caroline Tietbohl et al. Physician self-disclosures in the context of discussions about diagnosis and treatment
16.15-16.30	2A.4 Daniele Urlotti			2B.4 Madeleine Tremblett, Tim Auburn & Cordet Smart

8th INTERNATIONAL MEETING ON CONVERSATION ANALYSIS & CLINICAL ENCOUNTERS

	The epistemic upgrading of questions as a confirmation seeking device in mediator-interpreted clinical encounters with migrants	Identity in multiprofessional teams: The negotiation of tasks
16.30-16.45	2A.5 Magdalena Solarek-Gliniewicz Strategies to establish common understanding under medical consultations in a second language	2B.5 Marine Riou & Nirukshi Perera Accentism, intersubjectivity, and disaffiliation in French emergency calls
16.45-17.00	Annesofie Ishøy Nielsen & Catherine E. Brouwer Interaction with minimally conscious patients: Dealing with lack of response Leonard Wolfson Auditorium

DAY 2

09.00-10.00	KEYNOTE 2 Johanna Ruusuvuori, Professor of Social Psychology, University of Tampere, Finland Touch and Affect in Healthcare Leonard Wolfson Auditorium
10.00-10.30	MORNING BREAK – Haldane Room
10.30-12.00	PARALLEL SESSION 3A – Leonard Wolfson Auditorium Palliative care & end of life talk	PARALLEL SESSION 3B – Buttery Individual presentations
10.30-10.45	3A.1 Ruth Parry Communication in palliative care and about end of life: A state-of-the-art review of conversation-analytic research	3B.1 Kleopatra Sideridou Mouth opening sequences in dental appointments: a collaborative interplay
10.45-11.00	3A.2 Marco Pino et al. Moving towards (and away from) possible discussions about disease progression and end of life: Some emergent outcomes of companions' actions in palliative care interactions	3B.2 Irene Kelder 'Normally I always ask briefly...': How patients and healthcare professionals in oncology construct sexuality as a delicate topic

8th INTERNATIONAL MEETING ON CONVERSATION ANALYSIS & CLINICAL ENCOUNTERS

11.00-11.15	3A.3 Andrea Bruun et al. Questions during funeral planning sessions with support staff and people with intellectual disabilities		3B.3 Xinxin Yang & Ray Wilkinson Known Answer Question Sequences: A Comparative Analysis of Persons with Aphasia-Therapist and Persons with Aphasia-Spouse Interactions
11.15-11.30	3A.4 Ana Cristina Ostermann & Paola Konrad 'I don't have good news to give you': Communicating death over the phone to families of patients in COVID-19 intensive care		3B.4 Anna Sowerbutts 'What does obey mean?': Interactions between a young offender with language disorder and his youth offending team worker
11.30-12.00	Ruth Parry et al. Translating conversation-analytic perspectives and evidence into existing communication training: The RealTalk approach Leonard Wolfson Auditorium
12.00-13.00	LUNCH – Haldane Room
13.00-14.30	DATA SESSIONS
	Leonard Wolfson Auditorium Gilian Noord Interactional difficulties in GP-patient telephone consultations in UK primary care	Buttery Heidi Meyer & Sjaan Gomersall 'We don't use that language here!' – Clinical dietetics and how dietary health behaviour change talk occurs in Type 2 Diabetes community healthcare	Seminar Room 1 Yicen Guo Interactional benefits & challenges of adult patient companions' participation in Chinese medical consultations	Seminar Room 2 Joanna Lindell Evidentials and epistemic humility in assessment consultations	Seminar Room 3 Lieve van Hengel Categorization work in group discussions on child vaccination	The Levett Room Caroline Tietbohl & Anne E.C. White Exploring encouragement across clinical settings
14.30-15.00	AFTERNOON BREAK – Haldane Room

8th INTERNATIONAL MEETING ON CONVERSATION ANALYSIS & CLINICAL ENCOUNTERS

15.00-16.30	PARALLEL SESSION 4A – Leonard Wolfson Auditorium Paediatric care	PARALLEL SESSION 4B – Buttery Designing, delivering & implementing interventions
15.00-15.15	4A.1 Laura Jenkins et al. Communication in paediatric care: A state-of-the-art review of conversation-analytic research	4B.1 Jack B. Joyce et al. Using CA to design and refine a communication-intervention in a clinical trial: How health coaches provide weight loss support
15.15-15.30	4A.2 Clare Jackson Doing risk surveillance and management during labour	4B.2 Liliia Bospala et al. Balancing epistemics: A study of self-repairs in opportunistic weight loss advice interactions
15.30-15.45	4A.3 Paul Drew et al. Informing parents about their child’s condition in neonatal critical care	4B.3 Charlotte Albury et al. Behaviour change discussions between primary care practitioners and people with multiple long-term conditions
15.45-16.00	4A.4 Bogdana Humă et al. Formulating ‘doubt’ about child vaccination	4B.4 B.B. Stinensen, Petra Sneijder et al. Analysing and evaluating patient–practitioner interaction about chronic pain: A workshop for pain rehabilitation practitioners
16.00-16.15	4A.5 Nan Wang Fail to respond or fail to recognize: Caregivers’ unsolicited expression of concerns and doctors’ responses in Chinese paediatric primary care encounters	4B.5 Geraldine M. Leydon on behalf of the REDUCE Team ‘God you’re going to have to remind me of the scoring options as we go along’: The telephone administration of the PHQ9 depression questionnaire in the REDUCE Trial.
16.15-16.45	Tbc

DAY 3

08:00-08.45	Registration
09.00-10.00	KEYNOTE 3 Alison Pilnick, Professor of Language, Health & Society, Manchester Metropolitan University Understanding the ‘failure’ of patient-centred care: A conversation-analytic perspective Leonard Wolfson Auditorium
10.00-10.30	MORNING BREAK – Haldane Room

8th INTERNATIONAL MEETING ON CONVERSATION ANALYSIS & CLINICAL ENCOUNTERS

10.30-12.00	PARALLEL SESSION 5A – Leonard Wolfson Auditorium Medical decision-making	PARALLEL SESSION 5B – Buttery Patients' perspectives
10.30-10.45	5A.1 Merran Toerien Invoking the patient's right to accept or refuse treatment: the deviant cases that reveal two norms for medical decision-making	5B.1 Sakari Iilomäki & Aija Logren Epistemic, deontic, and affective relevance of patients' ideas and integration of knowledge in neurological outpatient clinics
10.45-11.00	5A.2 Anikó de Geest et al. Respecifying 'vaccine hesitancy' as an interactional accomplishment	5B.2 Piera Margutti & Vittoria Colla Patients' overlapping talk: conveying concerns in oncology treatment visits by withholding the progressivity of interaction
11.00-11.15	5A.3 Chloe Shaw et al. When 'option-listing' provides patients with the interactional opportunity to positively engage with a conservative treatment option	5B.3 Amanda McArthur et al. Responding to patient disclosures of medication nonadherence: Contexts and consequences
11.15-11.30	5A.4 Aija Logren & Sakari Iilomäki Categorization of information sources and information users as pre-empting potential disalignment in stance and preference	5B.4 Marine Riou et al. The epistemic phrase 'I (don't) think' in emergency calls: A mismatch of callers' practices and call-takers' orientation
11.30-11.45	5A.5 Laura Jenkins et al. Interactional insights into risk communication in paediatric allergy	5B.5 Rachael Drewery et al. Compassion, patient tellings and the design of healthcare professionals' responses
11.45-12.00	Bethan Benwell & Catrin S. Rhys Comprehending complainability: Achieving empathy while maintaining professional neutrality in healthcare complaints Leonard Wolfson Auditorium
12.00-13.00	LUNCH – Haldane Room
13.00-14.30	PARALLEL SESSION 6A – Leonard Wolfson Auditorium Primary care	PARALLEL SESSION 6B – Buttery Dementia care

8th INTERNATIONAL MEETING ON CONVERSATION ANALYSIS & CLINICAL ENCOUNTERS

13.00-13.15	6A.1 Rebecca K. Barnes & Catherine Woods Communication in primary health care: A state-of-the-art review of conversation-analytic research	6B.1 Danielle Jones et al. Negotiating risk in memory clinic interactions: Risk identification and the role of third-party involvement
13.15-13.30	6A.2 Timothy Halkowski Metric shifts in doctor-patient discussions of alcohol & tobacco use	6B.2 Suzanne Beeke et al. 'It's okay you're not gonna fall': Accounting for care in acute healthcare settings with patients with dementia to avoid, de-escalate or resolve episodes of distress
13.30-13.45	6A.3 Anna Lindström & Rebecca K. Barnes Asking about allergies: Implementing safe prescribing of antibiotics in primary care	6B.3 Isabel Windeatt-Harrison et al. The first step in triadic decision-making involving people with dementia: determining who talks when
13.45-14:00	6A.4 Chase Wesley Raymond et al. Conversations about cost in primary care: notes on 'opportunity spaces'	6B.4 Rebecca O'Brien et al. 'I want to get out... I've got a child at home': Intersubjectivity and reality disjunctures in the care of people living with dementia.
14:00-14:15	6A.5 Caroline Tietbohl Gender differences in empathic validation provided during geriatric medicine consultations communication	6B.5 Felicity Slocombe et al. Reminiscence respecified: A conversation-analytic examination of practice in a specialist dementia care home
14:15-14:30	6A.6 Christopher J. Koenig How can treatment recommendation formulations help patients feel included in primary care encounters?	6B.6 Lauren Bridgstock et al. 'Wonderful Wonderful': Use of praise in the care of people living with dementia
14.30-15.00	AFTERNOON BREAK – Haldane Room
15.00-16.00	KEYNOTE 4 Steven Bloch, Professor of Communication & Social Interaction, University College London 'It's just...': How helpline participants manage additional concerns once closing is underway Leonard Wolfson Auditorium
16.00-16.15	CLOSING Leonard Wolfson Auditorium	