

“Global evidence-based projects in health and welfare: Opportunities for engagement”

#EBSeminar2014

Looking for a research topic, an internship, or volunteer opportunity?

Or just interested in evidence for health and social programs?

Learn more about some of the leading efforts in generating, collecting and using evidence in health and social programs, and find out about ways to get involved.

Places are limited, please register at <http://www.eventbrite.com/e/global-evidence-based-projects-in-health-and-welfare-opportunities-for-engagement-tickets-12969246365>

3 November 2014

Department of Social Policy and Intervention, Barnett House, 32 Wellington Square, Oxford, OX1 2ER

Violet Butler Room 11:20 –13:45 Presentations
 Common Room 13:45 –15:00 Lunch / networking

Sandwiches, tea and coffee will be provided at lunch.

Presenters

Frances Gardner	Centre for Evidence Based Social Intervention	(@SPI_Oxford)
Carl Heneghan	Centre for Evidence Based Medicine	(@CebmOxford)
Claire Allen Dominic Mellon	Evidence Aid	(@EvidenceAid)
Neil Pakenham-Walsh	HIFA 2015	(@hifa2015)
Birte Snilstveit	International Initiative for Impact Evaluation (3ie)	(@3ieNews)
Caroline Struthers Iveta Simera	EQUATOR Network	(@EQUATORNetwork)
Holly Millward	Students 4 Best Evidence	(@Students4BE)
Chris Champion	The Cochrane Collaboration	(@cochranecollab)
Martin Burton	UK Cochrane Centre	(@UKCochraneCentr)
Francois van Loggerenberg	The Global Health Network	(@info_TGHN)

If you have any questions, please e-mail Claire Allen (callen@evidenceaid.org) of Evidence Aid and Yulia Shenderovich (y.shenderovich@gmail.com) of the Department of Social Policy and Intervention.