

Job Description

Nuffield Department of Primary Care Health Sciences

Job title	Public Engagement and Events Manager
Division	Medical Sciences
Department	Nuffield Department of Primary Care Health Sciences
Location	Radcliffe Primary Care Building, Radcliffe Observatory Quarter, Woodstock Road, Oxford, OX2 6GG
Grade and salary	Grade 6: £29,176 - £30,942 per annum
Hours	Full time
Contract type	Fixed-term for eight months
Reporting to	Lucy Yates, Public Engagement Co-ordinator for LEAP
Vacancy reference	BZ20061 (HRIS No. 148109)
Additional information	LEAP - www.leap.ox.ac.uk This position is for the Meat Your Persona tour, https://www.the-liminal-space.com/all-projects/meat-your-persona

The role

This post is part of an ambitious public engagement initiative, based on an interdisciplinary research programme to reduce consumption of meat and dairy products, funded by the Wellcome Trust. More information about this programme, LEAP, can be found at www.leap.ox.ac.uk

The successful applicant will be part of the team led by Professor Susan Jebb with a focus on behavioural interventions to reduce meat consumption. Reporting to Lucy Yates, Public Engagement Manager, and working with design agency The Liminal Space, the post holder will be responsible for the successful operational delivery of Meat Your Persona. This installation builds public understanding of the connection between the consumption of meat and its environmental and health impacts, and empowers audiences with accessible information and tools to make better-informed choices about their personal meat consumption.

The post holder will have experience in public engagement, strong organisational and logistical skills as well as a confident and approachable demeanour with the public. Building on a successful pilot in the Westgate Shopping Centre in 2019, the Meat Your Persona tour will see a redesigned mobile installation travel to five locations around the country over a five month period in 2021. More detail on the pilot can be found in the link provided in the additional information above.

Responsibilities

- Management of the full tour – plan and deliver all elements of the tour, ensuring that they run smoothly, from the venue requirements to storage of the structure between venues.
- Ensure successful delivery at each location, including training local staff members to work alongside you.
- Be onsite at each of the five locations whilst the installation is live, including over weekends.
- Engage with the general public whilst the installation is live at each venue, building interest, answering questions, and supporting their experiences.
- Lead on media activity on the ground - working alongside the project PR team, any media partners and liaising with the press.
- Collaborate with The Liminal Space on any installation requirements, responding quickly to any maintenance needs including finding, fixing, repairing and sourcing expertise, items, tech or AV support as required.
- Ensure the installation is properly, safely and securely set up and taken down at each location.
- Budget management and reporting.

Pre-employment screening

All offers of employment are made subject to standard pre-employment screening, as applicable to the post.

If you are offered the post, you will be asked to provide proof of your right-to-work, your identity, and we will contact the referees you have nominated. You will also be asked to complete a health declaration (so that you can tell us about any health conditions or disabilities so that we can discuss appropriate adjustments with you), and a declaration of any unspent criminal convictions.

We advise all applicants to read the candidate notes on the University's pre-employment screening procedures, found at: www.ox.ac.uk/about/jobs/preemploymentscreening/.

Hazard-specific / Safety-critical duties

This job includes hazards or safety-critical activities. If you are offered the post, you will be asked to complete a health questionnaire, which will be assessed by our Occupational Health Service (OHS), and the offer of employment will be subject to a successful outcome of this assessment.

The hazards or safety-critical duties involved are as follows:

- Lone Working
- Work in hot or cold environments
- Driving on University business
- Regular manual handling

Additional security pre-employment checks

This job includes duties that will require additional security pre-employment checks:

- A satisfactory basic Disclosure and Barring Service check due to interacting with members of the public.

Selection criteria

Essential selection criteria

- Experience in producing pop-up activations
- Experience in public engagement, communicating accessible science research to the public
- Experience in liaising with the press and managing relationships with venues
- Expert organisational skills, quick thinking and a personable demeanour
- Proven ability to problem solve whilst paying a keen attention to detail
- Proven ability to manage multiple tasks or projects as part of a programme of work and to meet deadlines
- Excellent communication skills

Desirable selection criteria

- Expertise or an interest in the subject matter is preferential

About the University of Oxford

Welcome to the University of Oxford. We aim to lead the world in research and education for the benefit of society both in the UK and globally. Oxford's researchers engage with academic, commercial and cultural partners across the world to stimulate high-quality research and enable innovation through a broad range of social, policy and economic impacts.

We believe our strengths lie both in empowering individuals and teams to address fundamental questions of global significance, while providing all our staff with a welcoming and inclusive workplace that enables everyone to develop and do their best work. Recognising that diversity is our strength, vital for innovation and creativity, we aspire to build a truly diverse community which values and respects every individual's unique contribution.

While we have long traditions of scholarship, we are also forward-looking, creative and cutting-edge. Oxford is one of Europe's most entrepreneurial universities. Income from external research contracts in 2016/17 exceeded £564m and we rank first in the UK for university spin-outs, with more than 130 companies created to date. We are also recognised as leaders in support for social enterprise.

Join us and you will find a unique, democratic and international community, a great range of staff benefits and access to a vibrant array of cultural activities in the beautiful city of Oxford.

Nuffield Department of Primary Care Health Science

The top ranked centre for academic primary care in the UK, we lead world-class research and training to rethink the way healthcare is delivered in general practice and other primary care settings, both across the UK and globally. Integrating evidence and innovation, our main research focus is on the prevention, early diagnosis and management of common illness. We also play a key role in addressing some of the major public health challenges of our time, including obesity and climate change.

Our research is led by internationally renowned scientists; including GPs and academics from a range of non-medical disciplines including the social sciences and humanities. We cover the broad range of issues that you might expect to consult your GP about including cardiovascular and metabolic disease, infectious diseases and childhood illness, diet, smoking and cancer. We also focus on understanding and improving the experiences of patients and the public, utilising big data, developing digital health interventions and working internationally. We have methodological expertise in clinical decision making and diagnostics, clinical epidemiology, medical statistics, modelling, qualitative research and the wider application of social science theory and methods to address practical and theoretical challenges in health and care settings.

We provide a strong multi-disciplinary training environment, a full programme of academic support and good IT facilities. Our ability to collaborate with other epidemiological and community-based research groups locally and nationally enables us to utilise a broad range of relevant expertise into our teaching and research.

We are home to the Oxford Centre for Evidence-Based Medicine; the international Cochrane Tobacco Addiction Group which collates and summarises research evidence from across the world to underpin governmental health policies on smoking; the Interdisciplinary Research in Health Sciences research group (which uses both quantitative and qualitative methods to examine the human, organisational and societal issues relating to the delivery of healthcare and the improvement of health services) and the Health Experiences Research Group (HERG), which undertakes qualitative research into the patient experience including the Healthtalk research programme www.healthtalkonline.org through a close working experience with the charity DIPEX. The Department is a founding member of the National Institute for Health Research (NIHR) School of Primary Care Research, houses both the NIHR Collaboration for Leadership in Applied Health Research and Care Oxford and the NIHR Community Healthcare MedTech and In Vitro Diagnostics Co-operative, and leads 3 Themes of the Oxford BRC.

The Nuffield Department of Primary Care Health Sciences holds a departmental Silver Athena SWAN award to recognise advancement of gender equality: representation, progression and success for all.

Our staff are mostly located in the superbly renovated Grade II listed Radcliffe Primary Care Building on the Radcliffe Observatory Quarter (ROQ), the University's most prestigious development site for a generation, and close to the city centre (see <http://www.ox.ac.uk/roq/> for more information). Some staff are located nearby in the Gibson Building at the ROQ and at Eagle House, off Walton Street.

Car parking is very restricted at both sites with only a small percentage of staff being granted an annual parking permit. Bus Pass, Train Pass, bicycle loans and Season Ticket Loan Schemes are all in operation for staff.

The Nuffield Department of Primary Care Health Sciences holds a departmental Silver Athena SWAN award to recognise advancement of gender equality: representation, progression and success for all.

The Nuffield Department of Primary Care Health Sciences currently holds a Gold NUS Green Impact award. Green Impact is an environmental accreditation scheme championed by the National Union of Students and is designed to support environmentally and socially sustainable practice. The department supports sustainability initiatives in the following areas: supporting and leading change; energy; water; materials and waste; sustainable travel; biodiversity and nature; and food.

How to apply

Before submitting an application, you may find it helpful to read the 'Tips on applying for a job at the University of Oxford' document, at www.ox.ac.uk/about/jobs/supportandtechnical/.

If you would like to apply, click on the Apply Now button on the 'Job Details' page and follow the on-screen instructions to register as a new user or log-in if you have applied previously. Please provide details of two referees and indicate whether we can contact them now.

You will also be asked to upload a CV and a supporting statement. The supporting statement must explain how you meet each of the selection criteria for the post using examples of your skills and experience. This may include experience gained in employment, education, or during career breaks (such as time out to care for dependants).

Your application will be judged solely on the basis of how you demonstrate that you meet the selection criteria stated in the job description.

If you are applying for a research post and you have had periods of working part-time, please indicate this on your CV or in your supporting statement. This will ensure that any outputs such as publications are fairly judged when considered alongside the expected outputs of full-time workers.

Where posts are advertised full-time, we may be able to consider part-time working or job share arrangements depending on the requirements of the role. If you want to work part-time and this option is not expressly stated in the advert or job information, please email hr@phc.ox.ac.uk to enquire whether the role you are applying for might be available on a part-time basis.

Please upload all documents as PDF files with your name and the document type in the filename.

All applications must be received by midday on the closing date stated in the online advertisement. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.

Only in exceptional circumstances and with prior agreement can we consider applications submitted via methods other than the on-line recruitment system.

Please note that you will be notified of the progress of your application by automatic e-mails from our e-recruitment system. Please check your spam/junk mail regularly to ensure that you receive all e-mails. We contact all candidates, whether shortlisted for interview or not, so if you have not heard from us, please check your spam/junk folder and then contact us if you have not received a response.

Information for priority candidates

A priority candidate is a University employee who is seeking redeployment because they have been advised that they are at risk of redundancy, or on grounds of ill-health/disability. Priority candidates are issued with a redeployment letter by their employing department(s).

If you are a priority candidate, please ensure that you attach your redeployment letter to your application (or email it to the contact address on the advert if the application form used for the vacancy does not allow attachments).

Should you experience any difficulties using the online application system, please email recruitment.support@admin.ox.ac.uk. Further help and support is available from www.ox.ac.uk/about the university/jobs/support/. To return to the online application at any stage, please go to: www.recruit.ox.ac.uk.

Please note that you will receive an automated email from our e-recruitment system to confirm receipt of your application. Please check your spam/junk mail if you do not receive this email.

Important information for candidates

Data Privacy

Please note that any personal data submitted to the University as part of the job application process will be processed in accordance with the GDPR and related UK data protection legislation. For further information, please see the University's Privacy Notice for Job Applicants at: www.admin.ox.ac.uk/councilsec/compliance/gdpr/privacynotices/job/. The University's Policy on Data Protection is available at: www.admin.ox.ac.uk/councilsec/compliance/gdpr/universitypolicyondataprotection/.

The University's policy on retirement

The University operates an Employer Justified Retirement Age (EJRA) for all academic posts and some academic-related posts. The University has adopted an EJRA of 30 September before the 69th birthday for all academic and academic-related staff in posts at grade 8 and above. The justification for this is explained at: www.admin.ox.ac.uk/personnel/end/retirement/acrelretire8+/.

For existing employees, any employment beyond the retirement age is subject to approval through the procedures: www.admin.ox.ac.uk/personnel/end/retirement/acrelretire8+/.

There is no normal or fixed age at which staff in posts at grades 1–7 have to retire. Staff at these grades may elect to retire in accordance with the rules of the applicable pension scheme, as may be amended from time to time.

Equality of Opportunity

Entry into employment with the University and progression within employment will be determined only by personal merit and the application of criteria which are related to the duties of each particular post and the relevant salary structure. In all cases, ability to perform the job will be the primary consideration. No applicant or member of staff shall be discriminated against because of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation.

Benefits of working at the University

Employee benefits

University employees enjoy 38 days' paid holiday, generous pension schemes, travel discounts, and a variety of professional development opportunities. Our range of other employee benefits and discounts also includes free entry to the Botanic Gardens and University colleges, and discounts at University museums.
