Researcher

Fixed term post on Grade 5: £25.000 - £33.000 p.a.

Applications are invited for a Research assistant, to work with Catia Nicodemo on a research on the Immigration and health

- The successful applicant will assist with the management of databases, respecting confidentially and security of the data. Using data provided to perform statistical analysis, including preparation of the database and the production of outputs as required by senior colleagues

You will
- Hold a first degree

- Ability to manage own activities

- Experience of following methodologies

- Proficient in the use of statistical software such as Stata or R

Desirable

- Possess sufficient specialist knowledge in data clean and management to work within established research programs

- Excellent communication skills

Experience of working in a research team

The closing date for applications is noon on 30/08/2019

Interviews will be on 09/09/2019

Please send your cv to catia.nicodemo@gmail.com