

Day Zero Sunday August 13th 2023

13:30 – 16:00	An introduction to Overdiagnosis / How to spot Overdiagnosis - Early to Mid-Career Research Group Workshop Venue: Panum, Copenhagen University. Blegdamsvej 3B, 2200 Copenhagen, Denmark To register for the pre-conference, please send an expression of interest to Emma Gram at emma.gram@sund.ku.dk . As seats are limited, we encourage you to register early to secure your spot.
---------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Day One Monday August 14th 2023

08:30 – 09:00	Registration / Badge Collection - Coffee & Poster installation
09:00 – 09:15	Welcome
09:15 – 10:45	KN Session One - Incentives, drivers and causes of overdiagnosis Chair – John Brodersen Natalie Armstrong - Alexandra Brandt Ryborg Jønsson - Brooke Nickel
10:45 – 11:15	Refreshment Break
11:15 – 12:45	Parallel Workshops
12:45 – 14:30	Lunch – with a mentor
13:30 – 14:30	Parallel Seminars
14:30 – 16:00	Parallel Abstracts Sessions
16:00 – 16:30	Refreshment Break

16:30 – 18:00	KN Session Two - How does consumer testing and self-screening contribute to overdiagnosis Session attendees will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Identify how multi-cancer early detection tests for cancer that are being promoted to the public may contribute to overdiagnosis</li> <li>• Identify challenges to the development and clinical application of currently promoted screening tests for genetic and non-genetic risk factors for disease</li> <li>• Identify societal and cultural factors involved in the construction of a self-testing pathology market and how these increase (or mitigate) the risk of overdiagnosis</li> </ul> Chairs – Tessa Copp &amp; Barry Kramer  Annette Plüddemann- David Ransohoff- Patti Shih
18:30	Welcome Reception – Copenhagen City Hall
Day Two Tuesday August 15th 2023
08:30 – 09:00	Registration / Badge Collection - Coffee
09:00 – 10:30	KN Session Three – Clinical solutions and decision making during consultation to mitigate overdiagnosis Chair – John Brodersen  Julian Treadwell - Christopher Dowrick - Margaret McCartney
10:30 – 11:00	Refreshment Break
11:00 – 12:30	Parallel Abstracts Sessions
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch

	Panel session - At What Cost: discussing challenges in conducting overdiagnosis research (12:45 – 13:45)
14:00 – 15:30	Parallel Workshops
15:30 – 16:00	Refreshment Break
16:00 – 17:30	KN Session Four - Overdefinition: pre-disease a driver for overdiagnosis and expanding disease definition Chairs – Thomas Kühlein & Martin Scherer Svend Brinkmann - Ana Paula Pires dos Santos - Timothy Wilt
17:30 – 18:00	The Lisa Schwartz lecture
19:00	Dinner at Molkes Palae Dronningens Tvaergrade 2, 1302 Kobenhavn

Day Three Wednesday August 16th 2023

08:30 – 09:00	Registration / Badge Collection - Coffee
09:00 – 10:30	KN Session Five - Overdiagnosis and sustainability of healthcare for patients, clinicians, communities and the planet Most healthcare extends lives and reduces suffering. But the way we currently practice medicine is unsustainable for patients, clinicians, health systems, societies, and the planet. In this keynote session, world-leading experts will discuss what we do in medicine through a lens of sustainability from a wide range of perspectives, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• how the carbon footprint of healthcare can be estimated and used to push for reform initiatives</li> <li>• how clinicians and patients time can be understood as a finite resource that needs to be carefully prioritized</li> <li>• how an uneconomic growth in our societies at large relate to the current overconsumption of healthcare</li> </ul> Specifically, the session will focus on how a new appreciation of human, financial and environmental resources in medicine can help forge a more sustainable healthcare. Chairs – Minna Johansson and Kirsten McCaffery Martin Hensher - Victor M. Montori - Kristen Pickles &amp; Forbes McGain

10:30 – 11:00	Refreshment Break
11:00 – 12:00	Parallel Seminars
12:00 – 13:30	Lunch
	Elevator pitches (12:15 – 12:45)
	Parallel Abstract / Seminar Sessions (12:30 – 13:30)
13:30 – 13:45	Comfort Break
13:45 – 15:15	Parallel Abstract / Workshop sessions
15:15 – 15:30	Refreshment Break
15:30 – 17:00	KN Session Six - Communicating about overdiagnosis including the role of mainstream journalism &amp; social media Chair – Steven Woloshin Raffael Heiss - Thomas Lemke - Helen Macdonald
17:00	Conclusions and next steps – Safe journey home